AGAIN THE MUNYON'S

Norfolk Senator Says it Wil Ibo the First Bill to be Introduced.

A GIRL COMMITS SUICIDE

Sailor Lad in Navy Tells Strange Tale of Being Drugged and Shanghaied.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, VA., Nov. 5.—Senator Sale, of this city, to-night stated that the first bill introduced in the forthcoming session of the Legislature will be one to pass over Governor Montague's veto the legalized primary statute passed for the benefit of Norfolk ten years ago; amended to include her new population, and vetoed by Governor Montague.

tion, and vetoed by Governor Montague.

The Senator may make the bill as offered a general law, applying to the State at large.

A GIRL'S SUICIDE.

Nannie Carter, colored, aged seventeen years, shot herself in the breast at 7:30 A. M. to-day, with suicidal intent, and died two hours later. The girl first said that she had been shot by a man, whose name she did not give, but when told by her pastor that she was about to die and that she should tell the whole truth, she confessed to having shot herself.

truth, she confessed to having shot herself.

A STRANGE TALE.

Fred McDuggal, a sailor in the navy, says he was granted shore liberty in Norfolk some months ago in his regulation sailor attire. He was selzed by a sailors boarding-house man, carried to a fourth-class theatre in the lower part of the city, and there drugsed, after which he was carried aboard an outgoing British tramp steamer and shipped as a seaman, the ship agent collecting from the captain of the ship in advance all of his (McDuggal's) wages.

The sailor declares that he was on the broad Atlantic when he awoke and discovered his condition. At Rotterdam he was put off the ship penniless.

WORKED HIS WAY BACK.

Finally he succeeded in working his way on another ship back to Baltimore, and from there to Norfolk, being arrested here as a deserter before he could set back to the navy yard to report.

The boy's story not being substantiated, he was treated as a deserter and locked in the brig of the Richmond as a prisoner for days. He lost $30 pay; in addition was denied shore liberty for six months.

dition was denied shore liberty for six months.

The boy has appealed to Washington, and the Department of Justice directed an investigation.

A SINGULAR CLAIM.

Mrs. Edna May Marshall, wife of an army sergeant, who was born and has lived all her life in Virginia, claims that her husband, being a New Yorker, her marriage to him makes her also a New Yorker. Her husband himself has not lived in New York since he was seventeen years old. Mrs. Marshall is suing the Newport News and Old Point Electric Company for $50,000 damages for tetrible injuries she sustained on the cars of the company. The case was continued in the Federal court to-day.

SOCIAL CLUB LAW.

Judge James T. Crocker, of the Hustings Court, of Portsmouth, to-day arraigned the Legislature for passing the social club law, and illustrated the working of the law itself.

Judge Crocker stated that his reference to the Business Men's Association's lights on Sunday nights was an example of the working of the present law. Bride of W. R. Anderson.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

QUINTON, Nov. 5.—One of the prettiest marriages of the season took place yesterday afternoon at Providence Methodist Episcopal Church, when Mr. Wilbur R. Anderson led to the altar Miss Lee Pollard, the pretty and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Kay.

The bride was attired in a gown of white organdy, exquisitely trimmed with ribbons, bridal veil and orange blossoms, and carried white chrysanthemums. She was attended by Miss Lena Kay, as maid of honor, of Richmond, who wore a gown of cream crepe de chine, and trimmed with applique, who carried chrysanthemums also. The bridesmalds were: Miss Egith Kay, Miss Lucy Gordon and Miss Eugie Crump.

The groom was attended by Dr. Baile, as best man, and as ushers: Mr. Percy Bowers, Mr. Richmond Lacy and Mr. James Jones, of Richmond.

The Rev. Dr. Busby officiated. The church had been beautifully and most attractively decorated for the occasion with palms and evergreens, the combination of which was most effective.

The music for the occasion was rendered by Mrs. Miner, of King and Queen.

After the ceremony the guests returned to the home of the bride, where a most sumptuous feast was spread, of which all partook heartily, and viewed with great interest the immense number of handsome presents, of which the bride was the recipient.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson left shortly afterward for their future home.

Among some of the guests were: Miss Heckler and Miss Kay, of New York; Misses Mabel and Rese Edwards, and Mr. and Mrs. Edwards, of King and Queen; Misses Lucy, and Ruby Gordon, of Elko; Misses Susie, Hatteras and Lena Kay, Mrs. Minnle Traylor, Mrs. H. and G. Approval of Cuban Treaty More Complicated Matter Than Originally Supposed.

not take effect until the same shall have been approved by the Congress."

It has been generally supposed that a joint resolution or a bill approving the treaty would be all that was necessary but members of the House and some Senators take an entirey different view. They say that a bill must be passed reducing the duty on the products of Cuba, and that every provision affecting duties must be enacted in the legislation.

Representative Tawney, of Minnesota, who was the leader of the Republican minority that opposed the reciprocity bill in the last Congress, said to-day that to approve the treaty by a simple resolution would be void, and asserts that the sugar provision of the treaty is nothing more than a piedge of the good faith of the government that the duties on sugar shall not be changed during the life of the treaty. Any tariff bill, he contends, can abrogate this provision of the treaty or the treaty itself.

FINANCE COMMITTEE.

The Finance Committee, which meets to-morrow, will take up the subject of the form of legislation necessary to carry the treaty into effect, Generally the Senators believe that a simple resolution of approval would be all that is necessary.

ators believe that a simple resolution of approval would be all that is necessary, but some Senators, notably, Senator Teller, of Colorado, think that if approval is attempted in any such form it will raise a constitutional question, which will cause a long debate in the House. This afternoon Representatives Payne, Hemenway, Dalzell, Tawney and Mann conferred with Mr. Cannon on the form of the proposed Cuban legislation. Later Mr. Cannon said the matter would be determined by the Ways and Means Committee, Mr. Payne, who is the chairmar, of that committee, said he could make no definite statement about the form at the legislation until he had consulted all menbers of the committee, but that it was he opinion that the measure in form would be a bill rather than a resolution, as he did not see how the House could do otherwise.
